1. World Overview

Thalorion is a confluence of interwoven realms: the magical, the mundane, and the infernal. From the living world of Avalon to the political chessboard of Valedorn, every continent pulses with ancient power, forgotten history, and awakening futures.

2. Dimensional History

The Primordial Epoch saw raw magic dance unshaped. The Age of First Civilizations birthed dragonkin, runes, and the Auridani scholars. The Sundering fractured reality, birthing dimensions like Veltharuz and isolating Avalon.

"Magic isn't just a tool-it's a memory we haven't lived yet." - Izack

3. Avalon - The Living Realm

Avalon is not a place but a harmonic structure. Governed by a Triune Accord, its wild terrains, sentient groves, and resonant ley-lines shape themselves around intent and memory. It is the womb of structured magic and the hiding place of truths no longer spoken.

4. Valedorn - Human Domain

A land of uneasy balance. From the noble Ravenscrests, who walk between politics and magic, to the Armathene Hegemony, where magical might justifies rule, this is a continent of shadow games and ancient bloodlines.

Count Eldrin Ravenscrest - 'Keeper of Twilight Boundaries'

Lyra Ravencrest - 'Harmonic Resonance of the Lineage'

5. Veltharuz - The Shard Below

Born of paradox, Veltharuz is the Infernal Realm. Time flows sidewise. Demons are not evil by design, but born through magical contracts and conflict. From Shardlords to Lords of Contract, every demon echoes a contradiction they must master or perish within.

6. The World Tree Seeds

Planted across realms, these Seeds grow into micro-realities. Some restore balance. Some become Twistgroves - echoes of corruption from Veltharuz. A single seed can sprout an entire ecosystem with its own time signature.

"When a seed dreams, a world listens."

7. The Party of the Realmforger

- Izack: Dimensional scholar, dreamer of floating islands, crafter of sanctuary realms.
- Zara: Hybrid of Skybrood, Auridani, and Third Thread. Unstable but transcendent.
- Polly: Runic-feathered raven, guide of harmonic convergence.
- Grey: Golem commander seeking purpose after death.
- Marta, Marley, Clayborn, Arden, Stormwind, and Aria - each a voice in the new world's forging.

"You're reading the source code of reality itself." - Eldrin

"Sometimes I dream of a floating island in a sea of stars... and I wake knowing it's real." - Izack

8. Future Arcs and Mysteries

- The Return of the Demon King
- The Awakening of the Third Thread
- The Hunt for the Paradoxborn Child
- The Dimensional Academy vs. Armathene Mageocracy

- Polly's Song and the Summoning of Shardlords
